Re: Amy, et. al v. Jeffrey W. Feldman 2:14-cv-00721-LA

Dear Mr. Feldman:

In reviewing the settlement agreement I sent you a few days ago, I realized that there was an error. At page 3 (paragraph 1(c) it provides that you are paying Andy $12,500, but in fact you will only be paying him $7,500 – the same as the other plaintiffs.

To correct this error, would you please, using a pen, just cross out "$12,500" in paragraph 1(c) beside Any, and write in "$7,500". Then just initial the change. When you send me the settlement agreement, I will also initial the change and send you back a copy of the fully executed and initialed agreement.

I apologize for the error.

Very truly yours,

Marsh Law Firm PLLC

re: Amy et al v. Jeffrey W. Feldman, 2:14-CV-0721-LA

Dear Mr. Lewis:

On October 31, 2018 I received a letter from you which indicated that a contract that you sent me needed corrections. Enclosed is a copy of that letter. However, I've not received the settlement agreement that is mentioned in the letter. Instead I received notification from the prison that a stamped envelope from you was rejected by the prison. A copy of this notification is also enclosed.

Please resend the settlement agreement without the envelope. Also, ensure that no labels are on the envelope containing the settlement agreement. The prison has restricted incoming mail due to issues with drugs being sent into the facility.

Following are items that I need you to send me.

1. The settlement agreement.
2. Address information on where to send the checks and the settlement agreement.
3. Who to make the checks out to.
4. What info should be on the memo line which has a maximum of 35 characters.
5. Verification on the amount of the checks.

I am sorry for the inconvenience. I hope to hear from you shortly.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey W. Feldman
